Car raffle to benefit Eureka sesquicentennial celebration

EUREKA--The Eureka sesquicentennial planning committee has partnered with two Eureka automobile dealerships to raffle a 2009 car to raise money for the sesquicentennial celebration.

The raffle winner can choose between a Ford Focus from Mangold Ford-Mercury and a Chevrolet Cobalt from Sam Leman Chevrolet-Pontiac-Buick.

Raffle tickets are $20 and may be purchased at the car dealerships, Eureka Public Library, 202 S. Main St., and Eureka City Hall, 128 N. Main St.

The winning ticket will be drawn at 6 p.m. Aug. 22, during the sesquicentennial celebration, which runs Aug. 20-22 at Lake Eureka. The winning ticket-holder does not need to be present to win.
